“FACE TO FACE WITH OTHER FAITHS”

2015 CYF SEMINAR

JUNE 16-23, 2015

What is CYF Seminar?

CYF seminar is a mobile classroom experience for high school students. The group will travel to Washington DC and New York City. We will experience different cultures, new adventures, and learn more about our faith and the history of religious pluralism in our country.

What is this year's study theme?

This year's theme is “Face to Face with Other Faiths.” Everyday religion affects our lives. It forms the foundation for a wide range of moral codes. It is the driving force behind people's conduct. It influences the actions of nations on the world stage resulting in conflict and civil unrest. By coming face to face with other faiths in our week together, our hope is to learn more about the religious foundations and struggles for freedom of faith in our nation; to achieve a better understanding of the beliefs of others; to develop a greater tolerance for people who worship God differently; and perhaps to better appreciate our Christian faith—the ways we are different and the ways we are alike.

What will we be doing?

Though the itinerary is still in process, we will depart Louisville for a flight to Washington DC. While in our nation's capitol we will tour all monuments, the Holocaust Museum, the Smithsonian's American History Museum, Arlington Cemetery for the Changing of the Guard, the Capitol Building where we hope to meet with our Kentucky Representatives, and if time allows the White House and Ford's Theater.

We will leave on a train for an afternoon and early evening trip to New York City, arriving in time to check into our rooms, catch a subway to Brooklyn, and walk across the famous bridge into lights of the city at night. The Big Apple portion of our trip will feature tours of houses of worship and opportunities to experience the many faith traditions that abound in the city. As well we will spend time at Ground Zero, the Statue of Liberty; walk through Central Park; and enjoy the wonderful international cuisine and the delight of eating a slice of pizza. We will worship with the Afro American congregation at the Brooklyn Tabernacle on Sunday.

You can be a part of the 2015 CYF Seminar "Face to Face with Other Faiths" by filling out the Registration Form, Health Treatment form and signing the Covenant, then sending your deposit of $300, no later than April 10, please make checks payable to the Christian Church in KY and mail the deposit and forms to: Hurstbourne Christian Church c/o Mike Gatton 601 Nottingham Parkway Louisville, KY 40222. Subsequent payments of $300 are due May 10th and June 10th.

Registrants will be notified of team meetings and more detailed plans as they are available. Please contact Rev Dr. Mike Gatton (mgatton@hchristianchurch.com), 502-548-6311 or Emily Allen (eallen@hchristianchurch.com), if you have any questions. Looking forward to traveling and learning with you.
